- Maintain, query and use data from marketing activity to measure performance and optimize strategic plan
- Work with members of the board of directors and on special committees of the board
- Write, edit, proofread and supervise the design of all marketing efforts
- Supervise social media calendar, content creation, engagement and management
- Produce and edit photo- and video-based promotional materials
- Serve as liaison to graphic designer and web developer; update and maintain web site content; manage web site updates
- Source vendors; coordinate media buys and printing/distribution of marketing materials
- Partner with artists to gather information and promote events, finding ways for their voices to be represented throughout marketing, publicity, and community engagement campaigns.
- Mentor small arts groups in appropriate marketing strategies as needed.
- Build awareness of NHT and our events by developing/maintaining relationships with local media and influencers, writing and distributing press materials, pitching editorial opportunities, maintaining online listings, and soliciting media sponsorships
- Coordinate with Development Manager on design and messaging for fundraising activities including special events, annual appeals, and online campaigns
- Collaborate with Development Manager to create and solicit marketing sponsorships, oversee implementation, and sustain sponsor relationships
- Guarantee a high quality patron experience by ensuring accurate and efficient operation of all box office functions
- Supervise the Digital Marketing/Box Office Specialist

Our job descriptions are general overviews. If you feel passionate about the arts and believe that you have the skills to contribute to the growth of our organization, we want to hear from you.
